Senior Administrative Officers stationed at Meadquarters assembled during the last week of October for a three-day business conference. This conference, like an earlier one during 1957, was held at a nearby sink installation and worked through a full Agenda of major administrative problems and programs, by late afternoon of the third day.

A new feature at this Conference was the final session which was listed on the Agenda as "Making the Support Program More Effective" and was aimed at stimulating new ideas for making any aspect of the Support program more effective and efficient. Who was present for almost the entire conference, chaired this session, which proved very productive.
